PREFACE

The following pages describe such a varied assortment of coins, from Ancient Greek and Roman to the present time, that I hope every collector receiving this catalogue will send some bids—it encourages me to send subsequent catalogues.

I have endeavored to accurately describe the coins, and it is a great source of comfort to find that my care in this all-important point meets with the approbation of buyers. If the coin is damaged I say so, even though that defect may be very slight and so as to not unduly reduce the value I often expressly state if the injury is slight or serious. The sale is for cash and prompt settlement is requested.

I will execute bids for the regular commission of 10 per cent. of the amount bought (no charge when no purchase is effected), postage or expressage extra. The auctioneers will execute bids free of commission, but require payment in advance and assume no responsibility. Whenever a dispute arises between two bidders and the contesting bidder has vouchers and advances on price knocked for, said lot is to be again put up and resold to the highest bidder. (This is not to be construed as a license to have a lot resold where, in the judgment of the auctioneer, the contesting bidder was too late and did not bid until after the lot had been fairly sold.) No lot is separated. Exhibition from 9 A. M. to 1 P. M. each day. Every item is guaranteed genuine and as described.

Please sign your name and address to the bid sheet, and before sending it in compare and see you are on the right lot; mistakes of the bidder will not be borne by the cataloguer or auctioneers.

Catalogues with the prices realized written in in ink will be forwarded after the sale on receipt of $1 in advance.

The auctioneers and cataloguer reserve the right to reject and not accept the bid of a person who has failed to pay for purchases at previous sales.

Everything except proof sets and where "lot" is stated is sold at so much each piece.

The sale will continue from lot 1 to lot 776 the first day, and second day from 777 to end.

Thanking collectors for their support in the past, and trusting to merit a continuance of the same,

I remain sincerely,

HENRY CHAPMAN,

Numismatist,
